

Key Concepts

Myself	My Community	My World
Belief [Who am I; where do I fit in the world; what is my moral code; how do I express my beliefs]	Equality [fairness; the fight for equality; the effects of inequality]	Environment [our relationship with the natural world; how do our actions and choices affect the natural world; why is it special; how do we protect it?]
Health [the wonder of the human body, the importance of good health, how we keep healthy, consider the health of others]	Tolerance [difference; learning to understand people who are different to us; putting ourselves in other people's shoes]	Exploration [human natural curiosity; wanting to find why things are the way they are; investigations; experiments; exploration]
Freedom [what does it mean to be free; why is freedom important; threats to freedom; the fight for freedom]	Democracy [what is power; recognising the importance of empowerment, what happens when power is abused, how do communities share power]	Expression [how do we respond creatively to the world around us]