

Topic Themes

The Natural World	Humans & the Natural World	Democracy	Difference	Truth	Belief	Asking “Why?”
Nature is Special	Humans place in the Natural World	What is “Fair”?	What makes us different?	Can we believe everything we are told?	What is belief?	Why do we want to know “Why”?
Nature is varied	How do Humans use natural resources?	Rich and Poor: how are they treated differently	How do we treat people who are different to us?	The importance of reliable sources	Different people have different beliefs	How have human inventions made life easier for us?
The natural world should be protected	Human activity can adversely affect the Natural World	How do people abuse their power	Discrimination and Prejudice	Bias in the media and in records of events	Does it matter that we have different beliefs?	Explaining how things are the way they are.
Ecosystems are carefully balanced	Our own choices can affect the Natural World	Laws & Rule – how are communities ruled?	The fight for Equality	How do we make informed choices about what to believe?	How do people’s beliefs affect their lives?	The continuing importance of scientific investigation.
When something becomes extinct, it is gone for good.		The importance of Democracy		The unreliability of social media	How do people’s beliefs influence their actions?	Exploration – including Space.